Sandwell Community Dementia Service

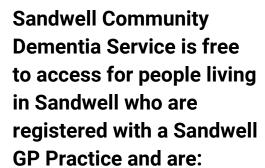

Support For Dementia

Sandwell Community Dementia Service provides advice, information and support to people worried about their memory and those with a dementia diagnosis in Sandwell.

Who can access the service?

Sandwell Community Dementia Service is free to access for people living in Sandwell who are registered with a Sandwell GP Practice and are:

- at any stage of memory loss and/or other cognitive symptoms.
- diagnosed with dementia.
- a carer/family member of someone living with dementia.

Supported by local partners!

The partnership includes:
- Murray Hall Community Trust
- Agewell CIC
- Dementia Pathfinders CIC
- West Bromwich African Caribbean Resource Centre
- St Albans Community Association
- BUDS
- Age UK Sandwell
- Alzheimer's Society

Sandwell Community Dementia Service is a partnership of 8 local voluntary sector organisations. We are working together to provide support all the way along the dementia pathway, as well as, helping to facilitate Dementia Friendly Communities in Sandwell.

The symptoms of memory loss can be worrisome and a diagnosis of dementia can be stressful and challenging.

The support is tailored to individual's needs to enhance their wellbeing and provide support throughout the dementia journey.

We will work with the individual and/or their family member to seek a clear diagnosis and provide information to help individuals make informed decisions about their care and future plans.

Make a Referral

Referral forms are available from the service or can be downloaded from:
