Changes Parenting Programme is fun and delivered in a relaxed new opportunity for yourself, Sandwell Family Life will the best from life and help children and young people achieve positive outcomes. Sandwell Family Life lists over 440 different services which can help you find something near to you. You can find the information at www.sandwellfamilylife.info – give it a try!

If you are looking for advice, activities for children or a supportive environment allowing all young people to enjoy play. Our service is provided in schools, community centres, libraries, community groups, churches, social housing estates, Scout groups, Playgroups, Sports facilities and Volunters. These changes are to provide a consistent service through the whole year to offer a supportive environment allowing all young people to enjoy play. We offer weekly Advice Sessions throughout the year with not one but two fantastic nominations for our Go Play Service to the Children Centre. In 2019 we were nominated for the Early Year Community Support Award and the Out of School Club Award.

Absolutely fantastic services. Me and my baby attend many of the baby classes and the worker is fantastic, very enthusiastic and a very welcoming person. Would definitely recommend these classes to any parent!
